

SONOCO 14th Annual Supplier Business Conference

May 22-23, 2018 Changing the Game on Risk

Southeastern Institute of Manufacturing and Technology (SiMT) ■ Florence, South Carolina

Welcome to the 14th Annual Sonoco Supplier Business Conference, a forum for our key supply partners to engage and become more familiar with our business, discuss expectations and learn about new opportunities for growth. This year we'll explore our views on risk and other important business topics and recognize exceptional supplier performance. We'll also focus on diversity and sustainability successes across our supply base.

The Supplier Business Conference truly provides an unparalleled opportunity for our suppliers to engage with one another and with Sonoco. Proceeds from the Supplier Business Conference fund student scholarships and support diversity organizations! If you would like to contribute to the Supplier Business Conference, consider becoming a sponsor. Various sponsorship levels are available to suit your budget.

Please click the link below to view the sponsorship opportunities and register for the event. We encourage early registration, so you have the best access to all the upcoming information.
