CAROLINAS-VIRGINIA MINORITY SUPPLIER DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL ANNOUNCES THOMAS BOWLES AS NEW DIRECTOR OF CORPORATE SERVICES IN VIRGINIA

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Dominique Milton, president & CEO of the Carolinas-Virginia Minority Supplier Development Council, announced that effective April 1, Thomas Bowles will join the CVMSDC team as consulting Director of Corporate Services for Virginia. Bowles has been heavily involved in supporting the Council for years. His prior contributions include: V-RING MBEIC Chair, Board and Executive Committee Member, and more than 20 years of providing professional, corporate business services. Bowles will perform his corporate services duties in a consulting capacity on a part-time basis.

Bowles said: “Those within the CVMSDC community know the passion and commitment I’ve felt toward the important work of the Council. I am thrilled to be able to continue the work of adding economic value to the supply chains of our Corporate Partners, as well as continuing to contribute to the wealth creation of the minority business community. My dual, continuing work as a certified MBE will only contribute to the value, focus and relevance I intend to bring to this role.”

Milton said: “The corporate services director plays a critical role in achieving the Council’s mission relative to Corporate Partners and MBEs. To that end, the CVMSDC leadership is excited to engage the consulting services of Thomas Bowles, president and CEO of Key Personnel Inc., to fulfill these important duties for the Virginia region of our tri-state Council.”

About the Council

The Carolinas-Virginia Minority Supplier Development Council is one of 23 regional affiliate councils of the National Minority Supplier Development Council (NMSDC). The Council is a membership organization of major corporations, financial institutions, government agencies and universities that operate within North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia. The Carolinas-Virginia MSDC is a non-profit corporation chartered to enhance business opportunities for minority-owned companies by providing support through developing mutually beneficial networking opportunities with corporate members and promoting minority business development.
